Vincent De Somer graduated from the University of Antwerp in 2015 with a Master of Laws with honours. His thesis was titled "Politici in de Raad van Bestuur van een vennootschap" [Politicians on the Board of Directors of a company]. Vincent majored in corporate law and minored in tax law.

Vincent De Somer completed his internship at the Antwerp Bar with Caluwaerts Uytterhoeven, where he continued to work as an employee after his 3-year internship. During his time with the firm, he built up extensive experience in legal proceedings, offering guidance to several major contractors and entrepreneurs in disputes.

In September 2019, he decided to set up his own firm, specialising in company and insolvency law as well as private building and property law.

In October 2020, he rejoined Caluwaerts Uytterhoeven Advocaten as Lawyer - Partner.
